Angkor Wat Tours

Cambodia

Founded by German traveller Felix and Cambodian tour guide Thung Sin, Angkor Wat Tours specialises in providing private tours of Angkor. Their exceptional knowledge of the area enables them to tailor tours around the specific interests and preference of each group. Their tours are available in English, Spanish and German, and they offer a variety of transport options, including tuk tuk, car, van or bus.

The judges commend Angkor Wat Tours for the variety of experiences they have on offer, from four-day rainforest hiking trips in the Cardamom Mountains to boat tours along the Tonlé Sap river. Or for those looking for something a little less extreme, they also offer bicycle tours around Angkor park, where groups stick to smaller jungle paths, rather than the bustling main roads. The bike tours offer an up-close view of Angkor's famous temples, and guests have the option of watching the sunset from the pyramid of Pre Rup.
